

Chalet le Chapeau Bleu

Description:

Ideal for skiing, cycling, walking and hiking, fishing, parascending. Near the Garonne river and local lakes.

Very close to the border of Spain on the Val d'Aran.

Lovely comfortable lounge with log burning stove for guest use, satellite English TV and music available.

Only 20 minutes from Bagnères de Luchon known as Luchon and the Queen of the Pyrenees with its thermes to relax in, pretty parks and lovely boulevard, cafes, restaurants and shops.

St Beat is a very old traditional french village with lots of history. Famous for its marble and known as the Key to France because of its proximity to the Spanish border.

Our chalet has a lovely large garden with seating to relax in summer and ample parking on 3 separate drives for guests.

Our guests have access to tea and coffee facilities in the dining room at all times.

4 course evening meal with wine provided upon request. We are also happy to provide a packed lunch if required.
