

Chalet Les Cailloux - Mountainbug Holidays, Pyrenees

Description:

A recently renovated 18th century village house in the high Pyrenees. Ideally located for Summer walking and trekking, road cycling, mountain biking and multi activity adventure holidays. Winter skiing at the Tourmalet resort (Bareges-La Mongie); the largest ski area in the French Pyrenees.

The house is based in the centre of Bareges, 50m from the free ski bus stop and close to all of the village shops, bars, restaurants and the highest thermal spa in France!

5 spacious en-suite bedrooms (including one very large family-suite to sleep 4-7) accommodating up to 14 people. The chalet has a sauna, heated equipment room, dining room and lounge with bar, wood-burning stove, books & games and big-screen home cinema. In Summer there is a sunny patio garden with spectacular mountain views.

Delicious home-cooking including many of the local specialities such as mountain cheeses, charcuterie, local lamb and mouth-watering French-style desserts.
